

Your truck, tools, and inventory are necessary for your livelihood. This includes the tools that help you make a more professional presentation to the customer. It is your responsibility to keep your truck, tools, and inventory in good condition. You should be ready for inspection at any time according to the following 20 point vehicle checklist.

<input type="checkbox"/> Exterior is clean	<input type="checkbox"/> Maintenance records up to date
<input type="checkbox"/> Tires are properly inflated	<input type="checkbox"/> Oil change within 3 months
<input type="checkbox"/> Ladders are properly secured	<input type="checkbox"/> Shoe covers on hand
<input type="checkbox"/> Turn signals, brake lights, parking lights, and headlights operational	<input type="checkbox"/> Handy wipes on hand
<input type="checkbox"/> Wiper blades in good condition	<input type="checkbox"/> Service agreements, door hangers, magnets, stickers, and handouts on hand
<input type="checkbox"/> No visible fluid leaks	<input type="checkbox"/> Price book on hand, in good condition
<input type="checkbox"/> Fluid levels and condition good (oil, transmission, radiator)	<input type="checkbox"/> Calculator on hand
<input type="checkbox"/> Interior free of trash and clutter	<input type="checkbox"/> Clean, spare uniform on hand
<input type="checkbox"/> Accident report and insurance card in glove box or visor	<input type="checkbox"/> Hand tools in good condition and properly stored/secured
<input type="checkbox"/> First aid kit, fire extinguisher, flares, and reflective triangles on hand	<input type="checkbox"/> Inventory in proper bins